Participation Fee

Following receipt of the admission confirmation, the participation fee of € 150 for soloists/€ 250 for piano trio must be transferred "free of bank charges for the recipient" at the latest by July 31, 2027.
This participation fee cannot be refunded in case the candidate withdraws from participation.

Jury

The juries will be selected from among personalities with international reputations without regard to ethnic, ideological, political or linguistic considerations.
The decisions of the jury cannot be contested.

Student of a Jury Member

If there is a student of a jury member among the participants, this jury member may not take part in the appraisal of this competitor.
Jury members are not allowed to teach their students during the competition itself, otherwise the student, the jury member, or both may be disqualified. To this end, a student is defined as someone who studied with a jury member for a lengthy and continuous period, and such study was completed less than three years before the beginning of the competition. Participation in master classes is not affected if the master class participation did not take place in the current competition year from April 2027.

Competition Rounds

Four competition rounds are mandatory.
The semi-final flute and violin will be accompanied by the Munich Chamber Orchestra without conductor, the semi-final voice will be accompanied by the Münchner Rundfunkorchester led by a conductor. A maximum of six candidates/ensembles will be admitted to the semifinals flute, violin and piano trio; eight semifinalists are allowed to compete in the category voice. The final rounds flute and violin will be accompanied by the Symphonieorchester des Bayerischen Rundfunks, the voice final by the Münchner Rundfunkorchester, led by a conductor. A maximum of three soloists or ensembles, a maximum of five singers, will be admitted to the final rounds.

First Audition Date

All participants will receive notification of the scheduled date of their first audition – along with the admission to the competition – by email.

Competition Program

The following repertoire listings and the conditions therein contained are binding for the competition program.
The competition program submitted by the competitors is binding. Subsequent alterations are not permitted.

No works in the competition program may be repeated except on the express wish of the jury or if it is explicitly written in the repertoire list in this document. The sequence of performance of the pieces in the first and second round is at the participant's discretion. If possible, original text editions should be performed.
Participants will not be allowed to perform their own compositions. In certain cases, the jury may allow only selections of individual works to be performed in the first two competition rounds or may select works from the submitted repertoire.

Piano Accompanists

Official piano accompanists are available at no charge to the competitors.
Participants may bring along their personal accompanist at their own expense.
The pianos and orchestra are tuned to A 886 (443 Hz).

Presence

Each participant must register personally at the central competition office in the Bayerischer Rundfunk at least one day before his/her first audition and show his or her passport, ID card or officially recognized birth certificate. Active participants are not allowed to leave Munich without the approval of the competition management (prize winners may first depart on September 18, 2027). Each participant accepts the obligation to remain free of all professional obligations or concerts throughout the duration of the competition.

Accommodation

For the duration of the first round, reasonably priced hotels will be recommended to the participants. All competitors who reach the second round will be provided by the competition management with the accommodation in hotel rooms booked by the competition office and meal vouchers from the first day of the second round on for the duration of their further participation in the audition process (Participants flute and voice from September 4, participants piano trio from August 31, participants violin from September 6).
Semifinalists will be guests of the competition until the final rounds, prizewinners until the day after the last prizewinners' concert. This does not apply to piano accompanists or other companions.

Prize Winners

Prize Winners' Concerts

At the prizewinners' concerts, chamber music works and works for soloists with orchestral accompaniment will be performed. The decisions regarding the program and at which concert specific participants will perform will be made by the competition management in conjunction with the jury and the music department of Bayerischer Rundfunk.
Prizewinners will receive no fee for their participation in the prizewinners' concerts.

Awards Ceremony

The awards ceremony will take place after the last prizewinners' concert.
Competitors will be expected to receive their certificates in person.

Media Exploitation

The Competition, including the prize winners' concerts, will be recorded by Bayerischer Rundfunk. These recordings can be used for broadcasting (radio or television, including on-line) in full and/or in selections, live or at a later time, and also provided for individual access independent of the type of receiver and also be made publicly available. Other broadcasters in Germany and abroad can make use of these recordings simultaneously or at a later time. Further use of our broadcasts and availabilities regardless of time and place (in full, in part or in selections) are possible.

The administration of the Competition reserves the right to use the recordings of the Competition rounds and prize winners' concerts for the production of a CD and/or a DVD to serve as publicity for the prize winners and documentation of the Competition.

The administration of the Competition further reserves the right to release or have released, and/or distribute or have distributed, itself or through third parties, commercially or non-commercially, any and all material from the Competition in audio or audio-visual form, on analogue or digital sound/image/sound-image data carriers including platforms, regardless of format or process.

The declaration of agreement required from the prize winners is regarded as given with the application to the ARD Music Competition; the same applies to the transfer of rights in accordance with the aforementioned stipulations. The prize winners have no claim to additional compensation of any kind.

Preliminary Remarks

The repertoire to be presented at ARD Music Competition 2027 in the voice category must cover at least of the following epoques: the baroque, classical, romantic and 20th century periods. Each participant must sing in at least three languages in the course of the Competition.
Participants are obligated to sing in the original languages. Art songs may be transposed. This necessarily must be stated when the program is submitted in the application form.
As of the semi-final with orchestral accompaniment, the repertoire must be selected from the repertoire list stipulated by the Competition. Arias with cabalettas or "B-sections" must be performed in full (e. g. Anna Bolena "Piangete voi?" with the cabaletta "Coppia iniqua"). From semifinal on recitatives are obligatory, if they are sung by the same role directly before the aria (not dialogues with more roles involved). The keys and versions listed in the repertoire are mandatory. If no key is specified, the piece should be sung in its original key.

Pre-selection

- Two arias or one aria and an art song of the participant's choice. Both works may be repeated in the competition.

The pieces may be recorded separately.
Up to two uploads are allowed.

First round (with piano accompaniment)

- Two pieces to be freely chosen. They must contain one aria or one song by W. A. Mozart and an opera or oratorio aria from the romantic era.

Second round (with piano accompaniment; max. 20 min.)

- Two art songs, one of them by Franz Schubert
- Two opera or oratorio arias

Semifinal with the Munich Radio Orchestra

- Diana Syrse, Composition commissioned by ARD International Music Competition 2027 (World premiere)
  The sheet music will be sent upon acceptance into the competition. The commissioned piece may be played from the sheet music, but it may not be performed publicly prior to the competition.

- Two opera or oratorio arias from two different stylistic periods
